28 January Meeting
(IAC-M-326)

Approved as written.

2. Situation Review

- a. Watch Committee Report
No. 391

Noted.

- b. Review of Sensitive Situations

The members discussed the Indonesian situation, particularly with respect to the reported ultimatum by dissident elements and the probable delivery dates of arms purchased by the Indonesians.

The Chairman and members exchanged views on matters related to the Egyptian-Syrian Union. In this connection, Mr. Kent noted that the IAC agencies had been alerted to the requirement for an estimate on the "Prospects for Arab Union and Its Consequences" and had concurred in the initiation of such a paper. He advised that the estimate was presently scheduled for IAC review on 18 February.

7. Release of Military Intelligence
(IAC-D-115, 13 December 1957)

The members discussed this matter generally, including various suggested amendments to the draft memoranda which had been prepared for possible submission to the Executive Secretary, NSC. In the course of this discussion, several members noted that, under any such new release procedure, the criteria used by the IAC and SDMICC should be generally uniform and consistent with each other.

Following their exchange of views the members agreed to refer this question to an ad hoc committee for further review and the development of a draft set of criteria for the release of military intelligence in the light of this discussion, which would be submitted later for IAC consideration. It was understood that such a draft would include appropriate references to pertinent existing statutes and other basic instruments which set forth Presidential policy governing the release of military intelligence [redacted]
